Successes

Participant Feedback:

I really liked the use of real examples and the ability to develop materials that I will use in my program.” Summer 2005 participant

Evaluation of instructors:

“The instructor made this course function, in some ways better than a classroom course. I felt I was getting personal treatment on a regular basis. The comments on assignments were thorough, on-target, specific to the tasks & very helpful.” Summer 2005 participant

Outcomes:

2005 Cohort – Increases in knowledge & confidence

2006 Cohort – 75% conducted evaluation & used results within 1 year of course.

Challenges - Attrition

---

Range – 20-31%; 15 courses, 4 years

Reasons – family circumstances, illness, job demands, course demands, time management, discomfort with online format

Literature –

- Up to 20% higher for online than face-face
- Even higher for online adult learners

Challenges – Basics + Attribution

---

- No previous experience w/ evaluation
- Lack concept of evaluation as systematic process
- Few programs have explicit measurable objectives
- Program activities unrelated to desired outcomes
- Long-term outcomes for short-duration programs

Challenges-Community

Instructor/student & student/student

Asynchronous ...Time lag

Time commitment

Technology

Solutions

---

- Instructor-initiated emails before start
